las colonias lodge

New hunting experience in La Pampa region of south central Argentina. Through a unique joint venture between two of the country's top hunting outfitters and one of the best taxidermists in Argentina. This collaboration ensures not only an exceptional hunting experience but also world-class trophy preparation and care, offering a seamless and comprehensive service from field to display.

After an exciting day in the field, you'll return to our cozy and traditional lodge. The accommodation offers warmth, comfort, and the charm of Argentine country living. Guests can savor homemade local cuisine, great Argentine wines, creating the perfect atmosphere to unwind and enjoy post-hunt stories.

The Red Stag is of course the main species you'll hunt, with opportunities for very nice trophies in our well-managed game preserve and expansive free-range areas. Alongside the red deer, you can also hunt Water buffalo, Axis Deer, Mouflon Sheep, Blackbuck, and wWld Boar, ensuring a diverse and thrilling experience. Our private hunting grounds offer the perfect blend of enclosed preserve hunting and the challenge of open, free-range stalking, catering to all levels of hunters.

This partnership between leading outfitters and top taxidermy services guarantees that your hunting trophies will be meticulously preserved, ensuring they become lifelong keepsakes of your adventure in La Pampa.

Getting There

The ranch is located in La Pampa Province, in south-central Argentina, near the town of Guatraché. The closest airport is Bahía Blanca, about 110 miles from the lodge. It is serviced by daily flights from Buenos Aires, making it the most convenient way to travel to the ranch. We provide transportation to and from the airport for your convenience.

Additionally, we can arrange charter flights to a smaller local airport located just 25 miles from the ranch, providing an even faster and more direct option for your arrival.
